Haskell's Halloween Carnival A Big Hit

Future tribal leaders lead the way at the Haskell Halloween Carnival. The Haskell Halloween Carnival was held on Wednesday, October 31, 2001 at Coffin Complex. There were a host of scary creatures, fairies, witches and many other halloween spirit costumes. A lot of effort was put into many of the costumes, and there was a great turn-out for the carnival.

Booths were set up with all kinds of games, and lots of prizes were given out. The clubs, residential halls and organizations that participated in this year's event were, Future Indian Teachers, Future Tribal Leaders Association, United Northern Nations Organization, Alaskan Club, Kiowa Cultural Club, United Pueblo Club, Pocahontas Hall, Blalock Hall, Oyate' Club, ACCESS Club, Haskell Volleyball Club, Haskell Artists Association, and the Native American Church.

The Student Senate gave each of the clubs, residential halls and organizations that participated, $50.00 to be used to help them purchase prizes and supplies needed to participate.

Those who attended the carnival, purchased a total of 7,451 tickets to play the games and eat. There was a prize given to the club that ended up with the most tickets. The club that earned that prize was the Future Tribal Leaders Association, and they turned in 1,177 tickets.

Overall, it was a fun night, and everyone seemed to have a good time.

Women's Basketball

Haskell's 2001 women's basketball team is introduced

Terra Houska
Indian Leader Staff Writer

Haskell's Fight'n' Indians women's basketball team started with a well earned win. The Ladies played against Central College, beating them 95 to 66. The Ladies started smooth, and ended with almost 100 points. They shot 62 percent from the field, with Charlotte Salabiye and Marinda Lamon leading the team with 17 points each. The three-point percentage was a low 18 percent, but the team anticipates to improve on that as the season progresses. Lamon led the team in three-point shots, with two for the night. Four of the Ladies shot perfect from the free-throw line: Salabiye, Cassie Kelly, Melissa Catron, and Shawnayn Joe. Salabiye also led the team with five rebounds, along with Melissa Mossett. The Ladies did very well and had a big crowd to support them; they should continue to do well in the rest of the season. Come out and support your Lady Indians.

Your Women's Basketball team for this year includes: Charlotte Salabiye-17, Cassie Kelly-6, Erminda Hernandez-11, Kateri SchAAF-8, Melissa Mossett-9, Marinda Lamon-17, Melissa Catron-10, Ruby Beatty 7, Audrey Beyal-4, Shawnayn Joe-4, and Lisa Dixon-2.
